TOBACCO GROWERS WILL SIGN NEIGHBORS

Following an excellent plant-setting season, which kept many of the workers in the drive of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association from doing what they otherwise would have done in the endeavor to sign up their neighbors, reports from many of the counties tell of preparations to conduct a personal canvass in each of them in order to sign up every outside grower.

Assistant Chief William Collins, of the field service division, declared that so far, probably 3,500 additional contracts having been signed on May 20, the day of the second distribution of $10,000,000 to members, and since that time, Manager Clifton Rodes, of Burgin, has been achieving remarkable progress in West Virginia and the eastern Ohio counties, when the character of campaigning made by opposition to the organization of the growers is taken into consideration.

Because of the fact that the time set for the drive made it impossible in many of the counties to make a concentrated effort to sign up growers, on account of the tobacco setting season, the time for the drive has been extended and those who were too busy last week have asked for the privilege of having a part in this work as soon as their tobacco has been set out. This the field service division has gained and the work in these counties will continue until all the outsiders have been seen. It is expected that few will be outside when the campaign finally is closed.

AEROPLANES VISIT PARIS

Two big army planes passed over Paris recently headed Northward. They did not hesitate, but after giving Paris the once over, continued on their course. The machines, according to the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, landed at Salt Lick, in Bath county, where the aviators stated to a bunch of natives, that they were en route from Washington, D. C., to Dayton, O., but got caught in a storm in the Allegheny Mountains and drifted in this direction.

SCHOOL NOTES

With the passing Tuesday night of Sayre College, Lexington, which at the close of its sixty-eighth year becomes a preparatory school, five graduates were awarded diplomas and the faculty of the girls' school to open in September was announced by Dr. R. L. Ledford, of Richmond, president of the board of trustees.

Those who received diplomas were Misses Udell Brandenburg and Dolly Hanna, Lexington; Rae White, Raleigh, N. C.; Florence Hedges, Paris, and Thelma Pennington, Benton, Ky.

In recognition of the fine record she made in her classes and studies in the above institution, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie C. Hedges, of Paris, presented their daughter, Miss Florence Adair Hedges, with a handsome Sedan automobile. Miss Hedges was one of the honor pupils in the 1922 graduating class.

Attractive programs are scheduled for the closing week of the Paris High School. Friday evening the Georgetown College Orchestra and Glee Club will be heard. Seats are on sale at the office of the Paris Commercial Club. Sunday morning, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached at St. Peter's Episcopal church by Rev. Walter S. Cain, rector. Seats will be reserved for the parents and graduates. On Tuesday evening the High School Glee Club will give a concert. Wednesday morning, June 7, the Bourbon county eighth grade commencement exercises will be held. Thursday morning, June 8, the High School commencement exercises will be held at the Christian church. Parents are requested to have their children call at the City School office Tuesday afternoon, June 6, between the hours of 1:00 and 6:00 p. m., for their final report cards. The graduating class of 1922 is the largest in the history of the school, forty-three.

RESIGNS POSITION WITH THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE

After a long and faithful service in a clerical capacity in the office of Superintendent Morrison, of the Louisville & Nashville, at this point, Mr. Paul Kelly, one of the most efficient and popular employees of the road in this section, has resigned his position, becoming effective immediately. Mr. Kelly will engage in a different line of business, the exact nature of which he has not made public.

Mr. Kelly has for so long been one of the able "inspectors" of Stoner creek, in association with "Kitty" McCarthy, Billy Grosche, and others that it is hoped he will remain in Paris to continue his official duties in that connection. Mr. Kelly is an ardent sportsman and admirer of nature, an agreeable and companionable gentleman, and should be successful in any line of work in which he may engage in the future.

MISS RAY'S PUPILS GIVE RECITAL

The junior pupils in piano of Miss Betsy Ray gave an enjoyable recital at Miss Ray's residence on Higgins avenue last night at eight o'clock. The young people showed evidence of high class training, and their work reflects great credit upon the teacher for her patience and skill in training their young minds and fingers in the devious ways of piano artistry. The program rendered was a lengthy one, lack of space forbidding individual mention.

The more advanced pupils of this accomplished musician and teacher will entertain with a recital at the same place and time to-night, to which friends and patrons are cordially invited. The program is one of exceptional interest and excellence, and the participants will be certain to reward their preceptor by the excellence of their work.

RECEIVER SOUGHT FOR COLUMBIA OIL CO.

Seeking the appointment of a receiver for the Columbia Oil and Gas Co., Wyeatt Thompson, of Paris, and others on behalf of themselves and all other stockholders, filed suit in Federal Court, at Lexington, Tuesday. In the petition it is charged that the properties of the company are not being conducted properly and that the money is being wasted through mismanagement. In addition, the annual meetings to have been held by the stockholders have never been called and no statement of the financial condition of the company has ever been forthcoming, it is asserted.

Federal District Judge A. M. J. Cochran is expected to pass on the request for a receiver for the company during the term of Federal Court in June. A. B. Thomason is attorney for the plaintiffs.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HEARS HIGHWAY REPORTS.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held Monday evening Judge Denis Dundon, who represented the Paris Commercial Club at the Dixie Highway Directors meeting held in Jacksonville, Florida, Friday and Saturday, of last week, submitted a very interesting verbal report of the results of that meeting and his efforts in the interest of the Dixie Highway route through Paris. The personnel of the directorate of this highway is for the most part composed of men of wealth and position, whose services are gratis and whose motives are entirely unselfish.

Last year, through the efforts of representatives of the Commercial Club, the Dixie Highway was given a double routing through Central Kentucky; from Cincinnati to Georgetown, to Lexington, and from Cincinnati to Falmouth to Cynthia to Paris, to Lexington. The advantages and disadvantages, respectively, of those two routes are as follows: The Georgetown route is about twelve miles shorter, but has about forty miles of road, almost impassable, and twenty-seven grade railroad crossings; the Falmouth, Cynthia, Paris route, although about a half hour longer, has only twelve miles of road, in Pendleton county, that does not meet State specifications which is the standard established by the governing body of the Dixie Highway Association.

The Directors at their semi-annual meeting this year voiced the opinion that the controversy over the routing of this highway had been extended over too long a period of time, and that next year at the regular meeting of the Directors, upon the recommendation of the Directors from each State, tentative routes which had not in the meantime completed the necessary road building program would be permanently abandoned. The Falmouth-Cynthia-Paris route with only twelve miles of unfinished road, and several feasible plans for completing this section under consideration, stands the best opportunity of being designated permanently next year as the official Dixie Highway. Road officials who are familiar with the condition of the Georgetown-Cincinnati Highway, and the available funds for highway construction in those counties, believe that there is little hope of this route being in condition to be accepted by the Association next year. The majority of the motor travel out of Cincinnati over the Dixie Highway is at the present time routed by way of Falmouth, Cynthia and Paris on account of the danger of the twenty-seven grade crossings on the Georgetown-Cincinnati route, and the much better condition of the roads.

Judge Dundon at the conclusion of his report recommended to the Commercial Club the marking of the Dixie Highway throughout Bourbon county, the immediate need of a suitable and convenient camp site for the accommodation of motorists, over the Dixie and Jackson Highways, and the appointment of a delegation from Bourbon county to cooperate with a delegation from Harrison county in the interest of a good roads program in Pendleton county. The Board of Directors extended to Judge Dundon a vote of thanks for his services, contributed to the City of Paris, in the interest of the Dixie Highway.

ODD FELLOWS MEMORIAL DAY JUNE 13

Mayor E. B. January, of Paris, Grand Master of the Kentucky Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. has issued the following proclamation to the Grand Lodge:

"In obedience to the law, which designates the second Tuesday in June of each year as Memorial Day and in obedience to the proclamation of Lucien J. Eastin, Grand Sire, directing that each Lodge shall arrange a suitable ceremony in commemoration of our deceased members, therefore I, E. B. January, Grand Master, do hereby set apart Tuesday, June 13, 1922, as Memorial Day (any Lodge is hereby granted the privilege of observing any other day that may be more convenient), and you are urged to hold suitable services in memory of your deceased members, and a dispensation is hereby granted for the Lodges to wear the Regalia of the Order on this occasion.

"Done in the City of Paris, Ky., this thirteenth day of May, 1922, and in our Order the 103rd year.
"E. B. JANUARY,
Grand Master.

"Attest:
"R. G. ELLIOTT,
"Grand Secretary."

BALANCES ON HAND IN STATE TREASURY

The State of Kentucky had in its treasury at the close of business Wednesday, a total of $1,016,287.24 in cash. Outstanding warrants totaled $4,816,910.57.

BASE BALL

The Maysville team strengthened their hold on first place in the Bluegrass League Tuesday by defeating the Paris Mammoths in a pitchers' duel by the score of 2 to 0. Paris collected but five scattered hits off Shaw, who pitched his second shut-out game of the season, and Maysville collected but six hits off Miner, the Paris southpaw twirler. Maysville's first run, in the fourth inning, came as the result of a base on balls, Margeum's single and an infield out. Slayback singled and came home on Gresser's triple for the visitors' second counter in the sixth. The attendance was very large owing to the Decoration Day holiday closing many stores and business houses. The batteries were: For Paris, Miner and Macke, for Maysville, Shaw and Connelley. Bilers umpired the game, which went for one hour and forty minutes.

The Mammoths may not be able to defeat the Maysville slugs, but they can do something else. In the game at League Park yesterday afternoon they took the Mt. Sterling bunch into camp by a score of 5 to 1. The game was replete with good plays on both sides, and the spectators got a run for their money. The game was witnessed by about six hundred. The batteries were, for Paris, Wills and Brackey; for Mt. Sterling, Moran and Lackey.

The unbeaten Paris Pirates, the crack youthful base ball team of Paris, will play the Wildcats of Lexington, on the latter's grounds this (Friday) afternoon. The Pirates have played and won seven games this season.

The Centerville ball club, which has an unbroken string of victories for the present season, will play the crack Perry team, on the latter's grounds, Sunday afternoon.

There will be double-header games to-day, Friday, June 2, at Hancock Field, in the Church League series. The first game will be between the Christians and Methodists, the second between the Baptists and Presbyterians. The game will be called at two o'clock. Each game will be seven innings. Come out and root for your favorite team.

President Russell believes that it is only a matter of time until the League adopts the four-game-a-week schedule. Fans are supporting the Blue Grass League wonderfully well, he declared, and if the schedule called for twice as many games the clubs would be able to play better ball.

NEW MANAGEMENT GRAND AND ALAMO

Monday will witness the passing of the old regime and the assumption of the reins of management of the Paris Grand and The Alamo by new management. Miss Anna Belle Ward, of Richmond, branch manager and director of the Phoenix Amusement Company, owning and operating a chain of amusement houses in Central Kentucky, on that date will take over the active management of the local houses, succeeding Clarence Sprake, who has been in charge of the houses for many years.

Miss Ward's sister, Miss Adaline Ward, will come to Paris as local manager of the houses, under the direct supervision of her sister, who will divide time between the Richmond and Paris houses. Miss Ward and sister were in Paris yesterday, getting acquainted with the house and employees. Miss Anna Belle Ward stated to THE NEWS that both houses will undergo an extensive scheme of improvement in the very near future, embracing a decorative feature that will enhance the appearance of both. A number of changes that will be of decided benefit to patrons of the houses are under consideration.

EDITOR IMPROVING AT MIWOGCO SPRINGS

THE NEWS is in receipt of the following snappy note from Mr. R. S. Potter, at the great natural wonder-worker, Miwogco Mineral Springs, near Milan, Indiana, telling of the improvement shown in the condition of Mr. Swift Champ, who is sojourning there. Mr. Potter says Mr. Champ's improvement is wonderful, he weighing 108 pounds, with good appetite and resting well at night. The note says:

"Milan, Ind., May 31, 1922.

"A new golf course has just been opened at Miwogco and officers for the ensuing year elected as follows: Swift Champ, President; Ed. McFarland, Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Champ gained the Presidency through his efficiency in handling a rake, and his spontaneous suggestion as to the proper distribution of the club's funds (amount 30c.) The course covers a vast area of about fifteen feet in circumference, with twelve tees and one cup, and was put in shape for playing by the guests, headed by the energetic President, who manned his rake for at least a minute and a half, and then declared a holiday in order to get a drink—no you're wrong, it was Mineral Water. President Champ says if the sun will stop shining so brightly, and the ladies will let him alone for a few minutes, he will demonstrate his ability as a golfer."

F. H. S. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BANQUET JUNE 8.

The Alumni Association of the Paris High School will hold its annual banquet at the Y. M. C. A., Thursday evening, June 8, at 7:00 o'clock. All former graduates are urged to be present. The members of the Senior Class of 1922 will be the guests of honor. Tickets are on sale at several downtown points or may be secured from the undersigned. The banquet will be served by the Woman's Club of Bourbon county.

PRESBYTERIAN BRANCHES ARE DRAWING CLOSER

The first step toward closer relations of the Northern and Southern Presbyterian churches was put up to the general assembly of the Northern church, at Charleston, West Va., Saturday, when the general assembly of the Southern church adopted a "constitution of the Presbyterian Reformed churches of America."

Notice of the action was sent the general assembly of the Northern Presbyterian church in session at Des Moines.

The election was taken in the form of a substitute for both the majority and minority reports of the ad interim committee on closer relations and adopted as a part of the election of the Presbyterian Reformed churches in America as approved in joint committee in Philadelphia last February.

It was said that the action is simply one for closer relations between the Presbyterian church in the United States, the Presbyterian churches, U. S. A., the Reformed church in the United States, the Reformed church in America, and the United Presbyterian church. It would be an association of these churches, authorities pointed out, and not a union of any two or all of them.

CHILDISH FOOLISHNESS

"She doesn't speak to me." "We haven't spoken for year." Have you ever heard such remarks? We know people (but they are darned few) who do not speak to each other—and yet they pass on the streets almost daily. Oh, how silly. A long time ago there was a misunderstanding, anger flared, and the hatred words were spoken. Then came silence. Two headstrong, stubborn days with their weight of sorrow and work piled into years and the gray hair crept over the sunny tresses. Still the women plod on, brushing their weary feet upon stones in life's pathway and they drop their eyes as they pass in silence. Two headstrong, stubborn men has a difference over a trifling settlement and they turn away from each other. The bonds of friendship are broken and they never speak as they pass by. Oh, the shame of it. The world is so full of real trouble and they pass in silence. Each is making his fight against the heavy odds of time. Each is surely steadily trudging on to the end of the road that his stubborn will keeps him from his old-time friend, and they pass in silence. Life is too short to spend in nursing a grudge. We all make mistakes and hurt each other at times. But, let's forget it. Make folks speak to you whether they are mad at you or not, and after while they'll get over their madness. Anyhow, you will have the fun of laughing at the fool who won't forgive and forget.

PERSONNEL AND COMPENSATION IN MANUFACTURE

A table of considerable significance published by the Department of Labor shows that in 1918 there were 290,111 manufacturing establishments in the country, an increase of 5.2 per cent. over the 1914 figure. Salaried employees in 1918 numbered 1,447,761, an increase of 50.1 per cent. in 1914 and wage earners 9,098,119, an increase of 29.3 per cent. in the same period. While per capita salaries increased only 50 per cent. during the five-year period, per capita wages doubled in that time. In 1914 salaried employees received 24 per cent. of this total, but in 1918, despite the 50 per cent. increase alike in their number and their per capita earnings, they received only 21.5 per cent. of the total. The corresponding percentages applying to wage earners were 76 in 1914 and 78.5 in 1918.

DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER IN JULY

All Democrats should bear in mind that July 10 and 11 will be registration days and that every Democrat in every precinct in every county will have to register in order to vote in the future. If you fail to register you will lose your vote. Democrats are urged to begin now to advertise this important matter. Every time you meet a Democrat remind him of the two days. Polls will be open in each precinct in the county just the same as on election day. When you register once you do not have to register again unless you move from the precinct. Don't forget this.

"POOR" EDITORS

It seems to us that the everlasting moan that goes up from newspaper men about the extreme poverty of the editor is a mighty tiresome thing. One would think by what some of the brethren have to say that the newspaper business is a sort of charity bureau and poor farm combined.

A man who has tried preaching and failed, second-hand business and failed, matrimonial bureau and failed, gets hold of a press and three fonts of type and proceeds to advertise his poverty. He takes any old thing on subscription and poses as the only unfortunate in the community. The painful part of the affair is that these misguided and untutored mental deformities pose as newspaper men.

The newspaper business is just as good as any business if it run right. However, no man can make a success in the newspaper game by everlasting harping about his poverty. After a time the people will begin to look upon him as an object of charity and not as a business man who pays for what he gets and expects pay for his advertising. And the strange part of it all is that these poverty pleaders call themselves "journalists."

Hades is full of journalists, but one must travel some distance before the eye is gladdened with a genuine newspaper man—a man who is making his business pay; a man who pays his bills, sticks by his principles and stands square on his feet. Get out, you poverty moaners—you make me ill.

THE WEAK LINK

There was a "session" at the home of a certain gentleman the other night and among those present was a married man who has a charming little daughter in his home. As the fickle goddess dallied first with one and then with another of the wooers of fortune, the hours of the night sped and the cold gray dawn appeared.

Still the ambitious seekers of fortune dallied at the table. It was breakfast hour when the party finally broke up and this particular gentleman finding the wife and daughter in the dining room when he arrived at home, tiptoed to his bed chamber and taking off his coat and unbuttoning his collar made his way to the breakfast table in his usual manner. He stood at his place fastening his tie with all the appearance of innocence, intending to convey the impression that he had just arisen from a night's sleep. He was congratulating himself on his cleverness when the little daughter exclaimed: "Why, Papa, what you got your overshoes on for?"

WAR MEMORIALS

Henry J. Haskell, of the Kansas City Star, in World's Work, says: "Every war produces its memorials. A nation's gratitude to its defenders naturally expresses itself in permanent symbols. Their type suggests the general culture of the period. As for instance the Civil War statues that dot the country—the soldier on guard in cap and cape; the ornate conventional shaft. It would be possible to write a fairly adequate commentary on American cultural development from a study of the statues and monuments in Washington.

"One of the important influences in the artistic growth of the United States in the next few years will be the sort of memorials that will commemorate the devotion of the men who served in the World War."

Hail Insurance Rates Reduced on Tobacco

With the recent reductions of hail storm insurance rates on growing tobacco, in the face of the enormous losses to growers within the last four or five years, every grower can afford to protect himself to the limit and, with safety, go into the business of producing a crop that requires so much money, time and labor, as does tobacco, that should be insured against loss by hail storms.

Now that so many growers have gone into an organization for a more economical, business-like way of handling their crops, and the insurance companies have so lowered rates on hail insurance, there is no reason in the world for any grower to neglect the protection of his crop by ample insurance.

Better see your insurance agent right away and have him protect your crop, which is likely to be destroyed any day by a hail storm. Policies become effective noon, July 10th.

THE FISH YOU CATCH

In the vacation weeks now at hand thousands of amateur cooks on canoe and camping trips will try to cook a dinner in the open, and spoil everything, including the fish. Others will be more successful. They will succeed in cooking something after a fashion, if only it is their knuckles.

Hopes of these cooks and those for whom they cook center on a frying pan and fresh-caught fish. The recipe which follows here will be helpful:

Put a pail of water on the fire. Clean the fish without scaling them. Put them into the water while it is boiling. Let them boil two or three minutes. Then pour off the hot water and fill the pail with cold water, so that the partly cooked fish may be handled.

The skin then can be separated into its natural divisions, and all the bones removed. The boneless sections then should be rolled in cornmeal and fried.

This seems complicated. But it is easier and quicker than the ordinary method. The fish will be of better flavor, and more thoroughly cooked. The salt should be put in the water in which they are first boiled.

If the fish are too big to go into the pail whole, cut them into two or three pieces. Everyone expects confidently that his fish will be too large to go into the pail whole. Half the pleasure is in that anticipation. But well-cooked food adds greatly to the pleasure of any outing.

Falling of Mankind.

"We'd get along better," said Uncle Eben, "if de average man was as anxious to do his share of de work as he is to hold up his end of a quarrel."

ALL ABOARD FOR CAMP ROOSEVELT

Twenty-five dollars for three weeks, is what it costs a boy to attend Camp Roosevelt, conducted under the auspices of the Chicago Board of Education, near LaPorte, Indiana, and open to boys during the summer from all parts of the country. Enrollments early in May indicate the national reputations this camp has built up, and applications and inquiries are pouring into the Headquarters from every State in Union. The reason is plain. It is open to any American boy of good character from the age of 12 years up. While scores of private vacation camps exist with the exclusive memberships and tuition into the hundreds of dollars Camp Roosevelt continues to operate on the pre-war basis of little over a dollar a day per cadet. The balance necessary for the maintenance of this large institution is supplied by public-spirited Chicago citizens, who yearly contribute the needed funds.

Major F. L. Boeles, U. S. A., commanding the camp, is in personal touch with all boys under his charge. They respect and admire him as a leader of the highest calibre, a friend and counsellor rather than a stern, unapproachable commander. His long experience in boy education has made him an ideal head for such a big, democratic American institution, and he is never too busy to go thoroughly into each individual's case.

INSISTS ON SHIP SUBSIDY

President Harding has made it clear that he expects the present Republican Congress to enact a ship subsidy measure. The American merchant ships are eating up nearly a million dollars a week in net losses, and the Administration feels that this can not continue indefinitely without stirring up a country-wide protest. The subsidy contemplates positive assurances from private corporations that they will keep the stars and stripes flying on the ocean, and while the subsidy will be an expensive affair it will not be solely a luxury, since it guarantees not only increased shipping, but the extension of our foreign commerce. This is the view taken by the Administration, and to carry out its program the Republican party is asked to guarantee about forty millions of dollars a year for the subsidy.

AN ODE TO A PERFECT SPRING.

In all our recollection we have never seen a spring like this of sunshine and shower, for flowers and fruit, for grass and grain, for man and beast. It has been both an early and a late spring, so early that the grasses and the wheat are far advanced. There is a perfect stand of wheat and it has grown so rapidly under ideal season conditions that an abundant harvest and an unusually early one is foreshadowed. Due to its fine limestone formation in the soil Bourbon county has better fields of clover than have been seen in many a day and the timothy is vying with the clover in luxurious growth.

The danger point for the fruit crop has passed, and there is a certainty of an enormous crop of peaches, apples, pears and all the small fruits. The stores already give evidence that we are to have a bountiful crop of strawberries. Corn, which is still king in Bourbon county, has been practically all planted nearly two weeks earlier than last year, and with the ground in perfect condition for the seeding and the early germination. Tobacco is being set out, and this is at least three weeks earlier than last season, which insures, under favorable conditions, a better quality and a better color.

Providence has been on the side of the farmer, and the gloom is passing away from his face, to be superseded by a smile that is as bright and as hopeful as these May days. The earth looks beautiful with its green pastures, its waving wheat and clover, and with the fruit trees bending under their loads of promised fruitage. Everything is perfect in its class, and if the Lord of the harvests will give us a summer to match this wonderful spring we will have prosperity and plenty. And, in passing, we would also remark that the fishing is good, and will be better as the days go by. For all of which we are duly thankful.

Wives Expensive in Kurdistan.
Wives in Kurdistan have to be bought. Several thousand dollars will be paid for a damsel of high birth and attractive appearance, and her father will usually expect to be given, in addition, a pony and some costly changes of raiment.

GOOD NEWS

Many Paris Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Paris are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. J. T. Martin, 1024 Main street, Paris, says: "I fell and received an injury which left my kidneys in a weakened condition. I suffered severely and although I took different remedies nothing gave me a bit of relief. My back ached and pained until I thought it would break and sharp twinges of pain shot through my kidneys. In one week after taking Doan's Kidney Pills I felt like a different woman and I still take them when I feel my kidneys need a tonic." (Statement given February 17, 1908.)

On November 12, 1920, Mrs. Martin said: "Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly all they are claimed to be and I recommend them just as strongly to-day as I did many years ago. I gladly confirm my former statement."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Martin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

THE CANE RIDGE FUND

The fund being raised for the restoration and preservation of the historic old Cane Ridge church and grounds, is being augmented each week by contributions from local people and others outside the State who are interested in the movement.

J. Will Thomas, treasurer of the fund, received a letter this week from Mrs. James W. Douthitt, of Bedford, Indiana, enclosing a check for a good sum as a contribution from the Houston Family Organization of that city. In her letter Mrs. Douthitt wrote feelingly of old associations and memories clinging about the old Cane Ridge vicinity, and expressed a hope that the sum necessary to effect a complete restoration of the old church would soon be secured.

AN APPEAL FOR JUSTICE

After several weeks of most unpleasant rivalry between Mr. Espia Mace (red bus) and myself (yellow bus) and although having unjustly suffered a heavy loss and feeling that I am entitled to the line which I built up after several months at quite an expense, I applied to Mr. Mace for justice and reason, proposing to forgive and forget the past and for us to work out a change of schedule in good will and harmony. In the presence of witnesses he shook hand and promised to bury the hatchet, and thus made me believe that our past troubles had come to an end. I then offered him the use of our Paris Waiting Room and my friendly co-operation if he would agree to let his bus leave Paris about the same time that our bus leaves Mt. Sterling and vice versa. This would give the public a perhaps needed and double service, and would test the need of a second bus on this line. However, unwilling to accept such a fair and liberal offer on my part, he persists in his former intentions to ruin me (if possible) by running his (red) bus a few minutes ahead of my schedule.

Our bus will operate in the future as before under the genial management of Robert Nixon, on the old schedule (until advertised further), and at the old and reasonable rates. Please ignore any schedule put out last week.

We will ask our patrons to be at waiting points from 5 to 10 minutes ahead of schedule, as at times in order to protect our interests our bus may leave a little ahead of schedule. Remember. The Sunday morning bus leaves Mt. Sterling on daily schedule—6:45 a. m. and Paris 8:45 a. m. The mid day trip is not made on Sundays. I again ask you good people to stand by me as you have done during the past, and let your actions show that the masses stand for "fair play." We shall conduct our business in a Christian-like spirit, with good will toward all, telling the truth without slinging of mud, and we are willing to leave our success in your hands.

Your patronage must decide as to which bus shall stay on the line.

Yours very truly,

Fred Weckesser

IMPROVEMENT NOTES

The work of improving and repairing the Lileston avenue bridge, which was damaged several days ago when a heavily-loaded motor truck went through the floor, is under way. The work is being done under the supervision of Street Supervisor Fred M. Fister. The bridge has been in bad condition for some time.

The city and county are jointly repairing the bridge on Second street, over Houston creek; the bridge over Stoner creek at the foot of Main street, and the one at the west end of Eighth street. The work of repairing Main street, between Fourteenth and Twentieth streets, will begin about July 1.

Plans for the erection of a $15,000 residence on the farm of J. H. Bell, seven miles out on the Hawkins and Cummins pike, have been drawn by W. K. Hagan, local architect, and work on the building is under way. This is to be a modern country home, with lights, water, furnace heat and a refrigerating plant.

Handsome new residences in the city are in process of erection for C. L. Steenberg, on Pleasant street; W. S. Arnsperger, on Main street, and M. E. McCurdy on Pleasant street. Numerous other residences are going up or will be built during the summer.

The City Council, under the leadership of Mayor January, has authorized the construction of some form of hard surface street on Main street from Fourteenth street to Twentieth street, the city limits. The contract for the work cannot be let until the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1, because the funds for street improvement for the current year have been expended. The paving will be taken care of out of the regular funds to rush the work to completion as rapidly as possible after the contract is let.

Notice To Patrons Who Sell Milk In
The City of Paris

Paris, Ky., June 2, 1922.
Complying with the recent order of the City Council, as well as a State and Federal law, that all cows furnishing milk for commercial purposes must be given the tuberculin test, you are hereby notified that such tests will be made by State or Federal officials, beginning probably about June 5 or 6, 1922.

For the initial test no fee will be required. Registration with the City Health officer, giving name and address of owner, and number of cows, must in no instance be withheld. Call at the office of Dr. A. H. Keller, City Health Officer, Rooms 5 and 6, in the Masonic Building, between the hours of 9:30 and 11:00 a. m., and 1:30 and 3:30 p. m. Registration should begin immediately following the notice. Those failing to comply with the above order will be subject to the provisions of the law.

A. H. KELLER,
City Health Officer.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Hugh Alexander sold this week to Wm. Farris a vacant lot on Tenth street, near passenger station of L. & N. at reported price of $3,000 cash. It is said Mr. Farris will erect a two-story brick business and apartment building on the lot, and that the construction work will be started soon.

The new frame bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Arnsperger, on South Main street, is rapidly approaching the completion stage, and will soon be ready for occupancy. The home will be a commodious one of the most modern type.

Harris, Speakes & Harris, Paris realtors, sold at public auction Wednesday, the home of S. B. Opkst, located on Winchester street, to Henry Sledd, for $3,485.

MRS. FRANCIS ASKS FOR $350,500 IN SUIT

Mrs. Laura Francis, of Paris, has filed a suit in the Circuit Court at Richmond, asking damages in the sum of $350,000 from County Judge John D. Goodloe, of Richmond, as the result of his alleged failure to probate the will of her husband, Lewis E. Francis. Mrs. Francis claims she will be forced to go without money from her husband's estate until the October term of the Madison Circuit Court. The petition says: "This humiliates and injures my business standing, for which I pray $350,000 damages." Mrs. Francis employed no attorney, but drew up her own petition. This is said to be the biggest damage suit ever filed in a Madison court.

BIRTHS

—Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Guttman are receiving congratulations upon the advent of a fine daughter, weight 7½ pounds, born Tuesday night at the Massie Memorial Hospital. Mr. Guttman was so elated Wednesday morning that he hardly knew whether he was still connected with The Leader Store, or not.

—The stork paid a visit on the night of Monday, May 29, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thompson, Jr., near Allensville, Ala., and left in their care a little daughter to gladden the household in the days to come. Mrs. Thompson was before her marriage Miss Matilda James, daughter of Mrs. Mollie James, of Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are receiving congratulations.

—Dr. and Mrs. William M. Van Slyke, of Gouverneur, New York, are the happy parents of a daughter, weight 7½ pounds, born at their home in that city on May 19. The little daughter has been named Barbara Ann VanSlyke. The mother was formerly Miss Gertrude Slicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Slicer, of Paris.

—Yesterday, to the wife of Geo. W. Brown, at their home near Jacksonville, a daughter, their second child.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Roseberry are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son at their home. The little man has been named Hiram Montgomery Roseberry. Mrs. Roseberry was formerly Miss Alice Rogers Clay, daughter of Mrs. May Stoner Clay, and the late Sidney G. Clay, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Sarah W. Clay, who died at her home in Lexington, Monday.

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events In Religious Circles For Present and Future

—The June meeting of the Christian Women's Board of Missions of the Paris Christian church will be held in the church parlors this (Friday) afternoon, at three o'clock. It will be "President's Day," and there will be installation of officers.

BUICK CAR BURNED

While en route from Paris to the Brutus Wheat farm on the Bethlehem pike the Buick car in which Mrs. James Connelly and her brother-in-law, Geo. Bell Ray, were riding, caught fire from some unexplained cause, and was destroyed. The occupants escaped uninjured but were powerless to extinguish the flames. The car was insured.

HANDSOME COUNTRY HOME BURNED DOWN

The handsome country home of Ike S. Willmott, located about one mile from Hutchison, near the Bourbon-Fayette line, was entirely destroyed Wednesday afternoon, by fire of unknown origin, together with practically all its contents.

There was no one at home at the time the fire broke out. Mrs. Willmott being ill in a Lexington hospital, and her husband being at work on a distant part of the farm. The fire was discovered by trainmen and passengers on a passing L. & N. train, who alarmed the neighborhood. Neighbors responded, and succeeded in saving some articles of furniture from one room.

The house was one of the oldest in the county, but has recently been remodeled and equipped with all modern conveniences, and was in an excellent state of preservation. The property loss was estimated at about $12,000, with insurance of $2,000.

PIANO RECITAL BY MISS CRUTCHER'S PUPILS

Thoroughness in training methods, and putting theory into practice, was amply in evidence in the work of Miss Elizabeth Crutcher's pupils in piano recital, given last Thursday night at the P. H. S. auditorium. The various numbers of the carefully selected program were rendered with almost faultless execution by the pupils, all of whom acquitted themselves with great credit, showing the careful and conscientious training they had received.

Those who took part in the recital were Misses Rachel McClintock, Nancy Young, Elizabeth Stuart, Harjorie Trisler, Nancy Kiser, Sarah Fox, Marie Bishop, Gladys Farmer, Anna Francis Hill, Ruth Fox, Nancy Hancock and Ellen Scott. Each participant did so well that individual mention would be superfluous. Aside from that the musical critic of THE NEWS was unable to attend the night of the recital.

COST OF PRODUCING TOBACCO IN KENTUCKY

The average cost of producing Burley tobacco on 74 farms in the Burley district was 32.6 cents a pound in 1920 as compared with an average of 25.8 cents in 1919. The average cost of producing dark fire-cured tobacco on 50 farms in the dark tobacco area of Kentucky was 14.9 cents a pound in 1920, as compared with 17.2 cents in 1919, and was less than one-half the cost of producing Burley. These figures are disclosed in a cost-of-producing study made by the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky and the United States Department of Agriculture under a cooperative arrangement. Figures for 1921 are now being tabulated.

The yield per acre on 74 Burley farms ranged from 378 pounds to 1,492 pounds with an average of 907.86 pounds. The cost per acre ranged from $160.20 to $493.60 with an average of $295.73. The cost per pound ranged from 20 cents to 66 cents. Approximately 80 per cent. of the tobacco was produced at 37 cents a pound or less. The average yield in 1919 was 1,492 pounds. The light weight of the 1920 crop is attributed to the unusual weather conditions prevailing during the growing season.

In the Burley district an acre of tobacco required an average of 32.84 days of man labor and 9:38 days of horse labor. Of the total cost, man labor constituted 38.22 per cent, land rent 3.07 per cent, barns and sticks 11.65 per cent, horse labor 70.66 per cent, and the other items cent, and machinery .76 per cent. Not including land rent as a cost, man and horse labor constituted 70.66 per cent, and the other items 29.34 per cent.

The yield per acre on the 50 dark fire-cured farms ranged from 275.2 pounds to 1,603.4 pounds with an average of 855.4 pounds. The cost per acre ranged from $77.61 to $251.04 with an average cost of $127.12. The cost per pound ranged from 9 cents to 37.3. Approximately 50 per cent. of the tobacco was produced at 15 cents a pound or less.

In the dark tobacco area an acre of tobacco required 24.8 days of man labor and 3.4 days of horse labor. Of the total cost, man labor constituted approximately 50 per cent, horse labor 14 per cent, land rent 13 1/2 per cent, barns and sticks 7 per cent, insurance 4.9 per cent, and other items about 10 1/2 per cent. Excluding land rent as a cost, man and horse labor totaled approximately 75 per cent, and the other items 25 per cent of the total cost.

The territory covered represented typical farming conditions in the Central Kentucky Burley District and in the Western Kentucky dark tobacco district. Cost studies will also be made for the 1923, and will complete a period of four consecutive years.

NEXT RACE FOR MORVICH WILL BE AT LATONIA

Reports that negotiations were under way for a $50,000 match race between Morvich and Jennings Park, handicap horse of the Westmont stable, were declared to be without foundation by Benjamin Block, owner of the Kentucky Derby winner. Mr. Block said no proposition of the kind had been made to him and that on general principles he was opposed to using Morvich in a match race with any horse.

He said Morvich's next appearance in competition probably would be in the $50,000 event for three year-olds, scheduled at Latonia, in June, but that his participation has not been definitely decided upon.

MILLION POUNDS OF BURLEY SOLD

An additional 1,000,000 pounds of the redried tobacco of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association has been sold by President James C. Stone and several other big sales are imminent, it was said at the offices of the association. No information was given out as to the purchase of the 1,000-hogshead lot or the prospective purchasers.

Before Managing Director Eugene Meyer, Jr., assistant Floyd R. Harrison, and general counsel, G. C. Henderson, of the War Finance Corporation left Lexington for Chattanooga they inspected the tobacco which is represented by the warehouse receipts, given as collateral for the War Finance Corporation loan, and were shown the identification tags on each hogshead which distinguishes the tobacco pledge as collateral from the large amount of tobacco held by the association which is free of any loan or collateral pledge.

They were impressed with the bigness of the thing and the system of doing business and expressed pleasure at having an interest in the financial end of the burley association's work.

On their visit to the tobacco district they were shown the storage facilities of the burley association and the complete warehousing system which enables the burley association to handle millions of pounds of tobacco and to care for it indefinitely pending its sale. Mr. Meyer frankly expressed himself as being impressed with the thorough business methods of the association, which were explained to him by Mr. Stone.

Contracts signed in the drive are coming to the office of Assistant Chief William Collins, of the field service division by hundreds. Many of them are from West Virginia, and the counties in Ohio, which Clinton Rodes is conducting a campaign, but almost every county in the district is represented in the contracts received.

THE YOUNG CROWD OF TO-DAY.

The young people of the present day are under much severe criticism for loose manners and ideals, and some people feel that they show marked signs of deterioration. Before condemning them too sharply, it would be worth while to consider some things they are accomplishing.

The public schools are the place where you get the best idea of their tendencies. Those of us who look back twenty-five years or more, would not care to return to the educational conditions then existing, when the average school was a dull and listless place.

The typical position of a school child in those days was to lean his weary head on his hand and rest his elbow on his desk, as he tried to fool the teacher with the idea that he was studying. Usually his thoughts were far away from the hated school room with its tasks which seemed meaningless to him. It was a common remark among the boys of those times that they wished the schoolhouse would burn down or the teacher would get sick, or anything happen to set them free from their prison house.

To-day the average school room is bright and cheerful. The great majority of the children would not of their own accord leave it. It has been shown to them that a person must have education in order to win success in life. They may get weary and discouraged over their lessons, but at least they want to learn.

Young people that have come along to and through high school age with that point of view have at least made a tremendous gain over the relative position of young people of that age twenty-five years ago. They have silly streaks and flippant ways and false ideas, that are in great need of correction. But they have some idea of one of the basic conceptions of life, expressed by the stereotyped but ever true phrase, that "Knowledge is power."

OUTLOOK FOR 1922

A comparison of the conditions under which the United States entered the year 1922 with those of the corresponding year of the preceding century gives us renewed confidence, says the "Trade Record" of the National City Bank, of New York, in the industrial and commercial future of our country. The population, which in 1822 was less than 10,000,000, is now 107,000,000 or more than ten times that of a century ago, while the population of the world as a whole has increased but about 150 per cent in the meantime.

Our international commerce even in the present moment of depression is sixty times as much as that of a century ago, having grown from $109,000,000 in 1821 to nearly or quite $7,000,000,000 in 1921 may possibly total forty times that of a century ago, when it stood at $1,659,000,000.

FAMED FLAG ACCEPTED

As a souvenir of America's participation in the World War, President Harding accepted for his countrymen a presentation by Ambassador Jusserand, of France, of the American flag which was displayed beside the French tri-color on the Eiffel Tower when news came of America's entry into the struggle. The historic flag, also later displayed at the celebration of the Marne victories at the Troadro Palace in Paris in September, 1918, was presented by the Ambassador on behalf of the union of large French associations for national growth.

Perfect Health Demands A Perfect Refrigerator

Alone, from the standpoint of health you deserve the best refrigerator money can buy. This necessarily does not entail a big expenditure. From the standpoint of economy it pays, in the long run, to have a GOOD refrigerator—by having one you will conserve food, always be able to keep it in a fresh and appetizing condition. Doing so means Better Health and MONEY SAVED.

In the past we have prided ourselves over the fact of always having a most interesting and up-to-date assortment of good refrigerators. But, this year, we have outdone ourselves. Never before has the varied and extensive display of high grade food conservers been presented in such a manner in our store—never has the quality been so high, or the values so keen. It is not exaggeration on our part when we say that in our present selling you will find the exact style to suit your individual needs, whether it be the baby apartment style or the full three-door style, 42-inch width. Our reputation for genuine values is your assurance for a decidedly good value in a new refrigerator. It is to your advantage to select early—come and let us show the new refrigerators to you now.

A Good Reputation Is Much Better Than A Written Guarantee

The reputation we have enjoyed for giving sound advice and aiding materially in the buying of refrigerators has not been earned with written guarantees. We have in the past years invariably delivered the goods—earned the fair reputation of doing the right thing. Let this guide you when you are ready for your refrigerator.

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Led Her To Try It

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. FRED. P. HANSEN, 562 Symmons St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration.

If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles.

The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

DOLLARS AND SENSE

Consider the hobo. He deserves your consideration.

With our "get as much as you can as quick as you can, work now loaf later" philosophy, we are behind the hobo!

His philosophy "do with the least you can as long as you can, loaf now, work later"—produces harmony, concord, opportunity to understand life's principles and to appreciate nature's wonders. It makes for fewer desires, which diminishes selfishness.

However, all play just as truly makes Jack a dull vagrant as all work makes him a slave.

The moral is "temporize." A little work, a little recreation, a lot of happiness. Exile greed, banish distrust, beckon brotherhood. Stop the strife to outdo, out-get, out-win!

As soon as the dollar is dethroned king of man's ambition and deposed ruler over every man's mind, as soon as we realize that ideals bring greater, wider, more lasting benefits and happiness than gold—that soon will we have adjusted the hobo's extreme philosophy to practical application in daily life.

HOME ECONOMICS TEACHERS TO MEET

Home economics teachers from all parts of Kentucky will meet at the University of Kentucky Lexington, June 15 to 21, to outline courses of teaching and to discuss problems of the profession. It was announced in Frankfort by Miss Betsy Madison, State supervisor of home economics education. Miss Campbell, of the University, will assist in the meeting. The teachers, according to the program outlined by Miss Madison, will discuss organization of courses for girls from the seventh grade on through the high school. The courses for the next year will be, in a measure, tentative and changes will be made at the next annual meeting based upon the experience gained during the coming year.

OWE LESS ON HOMES

Ratio of Debt to Value Decreases in Thirty Years.

Bureau of Census Gives Out Some Interesting Figures on Mortgage Debt on Owned Homes and Farms in United States.

Washington.—According to a preliminary report that has just been issued by the Department of Commerce, through the bureau of the census, the total estimated mortgage debt on owned homes and farms in continental United States in 1920 was $11,001,000,000 and the total estimated value of these mortgaged homes and farms was $31,708,000,000, the mortgage debt thus representing 34.7 per cent of the total value. It should be noted that the term "owned homes" is used by the bureau to designate those homes which are occupied by their owners, and similarly, "owned farms" is applied to farms operated by their owners, rented homes and tenant farms not being included in these totals.

The total mortgage debt on owned homes and farms in the United States in 1890, the only previous census in which this information was obtained, was reported as $2,133,000,000 and the total value of these mortgaged homes and farms was reported as $5,687,000,000, the mortgage debt thus representing 37.5 per cent of the total value. The mortgage debt on owned homes and farms increased 415.8 per cent between 1890 and 1920, and the value of these mortgaged homes and farms increased 457.6 per cent. As a result, the ratio of debt to value has decreased, being 34.7 per cent in 1920 as against 37.5 per cent in 1890.

The total number of homes not on farms in the United States in 1920 was 17,600,000, of which 7,195,000 or 40.9 per cent were mortgaged. Information regarding the value of the home and the amount of mortgage debt was secured from 1,893,000 or 66.3 per cent of these mortgaged homes. The total mortgage debt on the mortgaged homes not on farms in 1920 is estimated as $6,000,000,000, and the total value of such homes as $14,099,000,000, the ratio of debt to value being 42.6 per cent.

The total mortgage debt on owned homes not on farms in the United States in 1890 was reported as $1,047,000,000, and the total value of these mortgaged homes was reported as $2,632,000,000, the mortgage debt thus representing 39.8 per cent of the total value. The mortgage debt on owned homes increased 473.1 per cent, and the value of such homes 435.6 per cent, between 1890 and 1920. This has resulted in a slight increase in the ratio of debt to value—from 39.8 per cent in 1890 to 42.6 per cent in 1920.

The total estimated mortgage debt on owned farms in the United States in 1920, including the estimated mortgage debt on partly owned farms, was $5,001,000,000, and the total estimated value of these mortgaged farms was $17,609,000,000, the ratio of debt to value being 28.4 per cent.

The total estimated mortgage debt on owned farms in 1890 was reported as $1,096,000,000, and the total value of these farms was reported as $3,055,000,000, the ratio of debt to value being 35.6 per cent. The mortgage debt on owned farms increased 360.5 per cent, and the value of such farms 476.4 per cent, between 1890 and 1920, the ratio of debt to value decreasing from 35.6 in 1890 to 28.4 in 1920.

CATCHES YOUNG OCTOPUS

This shows John St. John, life guard at Miami Beach, Fla., with his catch—a young octopus with a spread of three feet across the fins. Catching sea animals is St. John's hobby and he has quite a collection.

Three Burned to Death First Night in New Home

New York.—A mother and two children, who were spending their first night in their new home, were burned to death the other day when fire swept the apartment house. The superintendent was unaware they were in the building and after rousing four other families, believed all were safe. Later, three charred bodies were found in the debris. Mrs. Florence Helms, twenty-three, and her two children, Harold, five, and Florence, three, were the victims.

AMERICANS PLAN TO STUDY ITALY

Arrangements With Royal University of Rome Designed to Promote Friendly Relations.

TWELVE SCHOLARSHIPS OPEN

Diplomats and College Professors to Address the Classes This Summer—Language, History and Culture Featured.

New York.—A series of courses for Americans, to be given in Rome during the summer of 1922, has been organized by the Associazione Italo-Americana, in collaboration with the academic authorities of the Royal University of Rome and under the patronage of the American ambassador to Italy.

The courses are planned with a view to making better known in the United States the language, history, culture and economic conditions of Italy, so that the mutual understanding and friendly relations of the two countries may be increased and strengthened.

Instruction in the courses, which will extend from July 10 to August 31, will be adapted to the needs of the American student. A large number of the courses in the literary, historical and economical development of Italy will be in Italian, supplemented, when necessary, by the use of English.

Twelve Scholarships.

Twelve scholarships, to be assigned by the universities on the basis of merit among the applicants, are offered by the Associazione Italo-Americana to students in the several American universities. All students enrolled for the summer courses of lectures will be entitled to the daily use of the Library of American Studies in Italy, and various rooms open also in the evening, for social gatherings and for study, situated in the center of the city of Rome, not far from the university. Here many American newspapers and magazines will be available. Students will also be entitled to the use of the university library. Each student will also gain free admission, during the period of the courses, to all the antiquities, monuments, galleries and museums of the Italian government and of the city of Rome.

The offices of the Associazione Italo-Americana in Rome, of the Institute of International Education, 419 West One hundred and seventeenth street, this city, and of the Italy-America society, 23 West Forty-third street, will furnish on request information as to the courses, as well as answer questions and make suggestions concerning living conditions in Rome—hotels, boarding houses, etc.

To Promote Friendly Relations.

The Associazione Italo-Americana was organized in Rome in 1919, under the auspices of persons prominent in governmental, scientific, industrial and financial circles, for the following purposes: "To foster cordial relations between Italy and the United States by means of courses of study, publications, lectures, etc.; to establish cooperation with Italian citizens living in America and Americans living in Italy; to increase economic relations and to assist industrial and commercial organizations of Italians and Americans, under conditions which shall not affect the economic independence of the two countries."

Among the speakers in Rome this year will be Tommaso Tittoni, president of the Italian senate, who visited the United States last fall; Professor Rodolfo Lanciani, authority on ancient Rome, and Professors Pietro Bonfante and Carlo Formich, both of the Royal University of Rome. The association has undertaken to arrange for the exchange of professors, as well as the establishment of scholarships.

HARVARD U. "CUTUPS" FEWER

Pranks in Disfavor Through Student Council Influence, Doctor Lowell Says.

Cincinnati.—The "cutup" spirit fast is subsiding at Harvard university, according to its president, Dr. A. Lawrence Lowell, at the annual dinner of the Harvard club here. Pranks during classes are taboo also, he said, because students have become imbued with a community spirit under student councils.

"The Harvard enrollment is increasing and the influx from the West, Middle West and the South is far in excess of those coming from New England," said Doctor Lowell.

"The art of life is not solving problems so much as it is in recognizing a problem when it appears," Doctor Lowell added. "While the world has many who are able to untangle a situation, it has few who see clearly great problems."

Big Bird Specimens.

Denver, Colo.—Giant South American condors and other birds and animals of Peru will be exhibited in the Colorado Museum of Natural History as a result of an offer received by Mayor Bailey. Duane M. Kline, an engineer, formerly of Denver, now employed in South America, has asked the city to accept a pair of condors, two pairs of Tucana birds, giant butterflies with a wing spread of eight and ten inches, and other interesting specimens of animal and bird life of Peru.

SURVEY MT. LE CONTE

Federal Geologists to Seek Exact Height of Mountain.

Want to Settle Dispute as to Which is the Highest Peak in the Appalachian Range—Of Special Scientific Interest.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Mount Le Conte, in the southeastern part of this state, near the North Carolina line, will be a center of scientific interest in the coming months because of a geological survey to be made under federal direction in June, to test the claim that it is the highest peak in the Appalachian range.

Until about a generation ago that distinction was held by Mount Washington, which towers 6,293 feet above sea level. Then a survey fixed a height of 6,711 feet for Mount Mitchell, that measurement standing now as the official altitude mark for uplands east of the Rocky mountains. Measurements of Mount Le Conte, for which accuracy is not claimed, have come within 99 feet of the Mount Mitchell figure. It is believed the coming federal survey will make good that estimate and add several hundred feet to it, thus furnishing the geographers with a new item.

When Washington was officially overtopped by Mitchell, a weather observatory on Washington, functioning continuously, justified its advertisement as the highest point in the eastern United States that was inhabited throughout the year. Roan mountain in the southern range sought that distinction when Gen. John T. Wilder established a hotel estate there known as "Cloudland" at a certified elevation of 6,313 feet and visitors were able, from the hotel porch, to sweep the vision over cloud masses below them, floating, breaking or thundering over lower peaks. "Cloudland" proved too difficult to reach and too expensive to maintain. With its abandonment the advertisement of Mount Washington as the highest inhabited all-year Eastern spot, became freshly assertive. It will probably continue to be true, for the top of Mount Mitchell has not been inhabited all the year. There is no such prospect for Le Conte, even though it may hereafter outrank all the other Appalachian peaks in height.

TWO DOGS ARE FIRE HEROES

New York Canines Give Alarm When Flames Threaten—Woman Loses Life.

New York.—Dogs were the heroes at two fires, one of which resulted in the death of Mrs. Ellen Isaac, eighty-three, who burned to death in the presence of her husband, Mark, eighty-four, who was bedfast and powerless to help her. She staggered into his bedroom after her dress had caught fire from a kitchen stove and collapsed.

Tobey, a neighbor's dog, ran to the apartment of Mrs. Thomas McNamara, his mistress, took the edge of her skirt in his teeth and drew her toward the Isaac apartment. She and her husband wrapped a tablecloth about Mrs. Isaac, extinguishing the flames, but the woman died before a physician could be summoned. Teddy, a Pomeranian owned by Benjamin Hollan of 363 St. John's place, Brooklyn, aroused his master when a fire started in the house, and Hollan notified a policeman, who turned in an alarm.

ALUMINUM CARS MAY BE NEXT

Experts Begin Research to Find Strong Light Material for Motor Cars.

Washington.—At the suggestion of automobile manufacturers and large foundries of the country, the bureau of mines has announced that an investigation of far-reaching importance would shortly be made to determine the cracking tendencies of commercial aluminum alloys. The purpose of the proposed investigation was said to be to determine whether lighter weight motor cars can be manufactured successfully and retain the same stability now found in the larger and more substantial vehicle.

Flies 1,210 Miles in Ten Hours.

New York.—Flying at an average speed of 121 miles an hour, through three storms, a seaplane carrying a total load of 1,600 pounds made the flight from Palm Beach, Fla., to New York, a distance of 1,210 miles, in 9 hours and 56 minutes.

Bushmen in Philippines Not Forced to Wear Pants

Chicago.—Whether Filipino bushmen, who are wont to wear scant attire, should be compelled to put on trousers was a subject debated with some heat in the island's legislature, according to the Rev. J. W. Moore, Methodist missionary who has just returned. A bill for compulsory wearing of trousers was defeated, according to Mr. Moore, after a bitter struggle in which the bushmen, through their spokesman, took a voluble part.

They are, however, getting into trousers without legislation, the issue having been personal liberty.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Indications now point to an unusually large class of beginners in the free swimming class for boys to be held next week at the Y. M. C. A. building. The Corsan method of instruction, whereby a number are given lessons at the same time, will be used. Physical Director Sheffield will have charge of the class. Ray Cahal and Robt. McCarty, who won the National Y. M. C. A. life-saving awards at Camp Daniel Boone, will assist Mr. Sheffield with the class. All boys who want to be in the class should enroll at the Y. M. C. A. building this week.

The Y. M. C. A. Membership Committee is planning to put on the second Annual Membership Campaign at an early date. Workers will meet at the Y building Monday evening, June 5, elect captain and organize two teams. The team winning the contest will have a strawberry and ice cream treat—the losers will wash the dishes.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE ORCHESTRA IN CONCERT HERE

The Georgetown College Orchestra, under the direction of Clarence E. True, one of the best known musical organizations in the State, will give a concert, under the auspices of the Paris City School, at the school auditorium, Friday evening, June 2, 1922, at 8:15 p. m.

This orchestra, exceptionally well balanced in instrumentation, will render a program principally of classical selections, with a few popular numbers to lighten the concert. Vocalists, accompanists and a monologist will add variety to the entertainment. Four of the musicians of this orchestra are booked on Chautauqua circuits for this summer. The people of Paris will be given a rare musical treat at popular prices.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

ROSE

—Mrs. Rachel Kelly Rose, widow of the late James Rose, died near Curry, in Harrison county, Monday, after a short illness. She is survived by five children, one of them, Wm. J. Rose, being a resident of Bourbon county. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Mt. Pleasant church, in Harrison county, with services conducted by Rev. A. S. Godbey. The interment followed in the church yard.

MOORE

—Sam Moore, 77, dropped dead while sitting on the front porch of his home in Oxford, in Scott county. He was a member of Company E, Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, in the company of which James E. Cantrill was captain, and John H. Morgan, general. He attended the decoration services of the Confederate Veterans in Georgetown, Saturday. Funeral services were held at the grave Wednesday, afternoon, conducted by Dr. J. S. Hagins, of Lexington. Pallbearers were the Confederate veterans.

CLAY

—Hon. J. Will Clay, of Mt. Sterling, at one time State Senator, and one of the best-known men in Central Kentucky, died Saturday, in St. Joseph's Hospital, Lexington, after a long illness of stomach trouble. Mr. Clay had long been one of the leading figures in the Burley tobacco industry in this section of Kentucky. He owned a large loose leaf warehouse in Mt. Sterling.

Mr. Clay is survived by his widow, one son, W. C. Clay, and one brother, Matt C. Clay, of Mt. Sterling. The body was taken to his old home for interment in Machpelah Cemetery.

CLAY

—Mrs. Sarah Warfield Clay, aged eighty-two, died Monday night at her home in Lexington, after a short illness, due to a combination of diseases. Mrs. Clay was the widow of Sidney Clay, Sr., who died in 1899. Mr. Clay owned a large estate in Bourbon county, on which he resided until his marriage when he and Mrs. Clay moved to their country estate near Escandjia. Here they continued to reside until they moved to Lexington.

Mrs. Clay was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Warfield, of Lexington. Of aristocratic lineage Mrs. Clay had the grace and nobility of character inherited from ancestors prominent in the history of the State. She possessed a rare dignity and graciousness, which was shown in the most lovely way in her home and as a social leader.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. William V. Judson, of Chicago; Mrs. Rogers Clay, of Frankfort; Mrs. Wm. Preston Wooten, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Isabel Clay, of Lexington; two sisters, Mrs. Kate Warfield Spears and Mrs. Shelby Kinkead, of Lexington; and the following grandchildren: Mrs. Hiram Roseberry, of Paris; Sidney Wooten, of Washington, D. C.; Clay Judson, of Chicago; Rogers Clay Sidney Clay, of Frankfort.

Funeral services were held at the family home in Lexington, Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, with services conducted by Bishop Lewis K. Burton and Dean Robert K. Massie, of Christ Church Cathedral. The interment followed on the family lot in the Lexington Cemetery. The pallbearers were Warfield Kinkead, Sidney Kinkead, William Kinkead, Easton Spears, Hiram Roseberry, William Rogers Clay, Clay Judson, Catesby Woodford.

"OBITUARY WRITERS TAKE NOTICE"

Under the above caption Editor Hiram Duley, of the Flemingsburg Times Democrat sounds a note of warning to those who take great pleasure in parading their griefs and bereavements in the county papers at the expense of the editors and publishers, as follows:

"We have more trouble in collecting accounts for publishing obituaries and cards of thanks than with all other kinds of accounts. Hereafter we will not print anything of the sort without cash in advance. Count the words and send one cent a word, except that in cards of thanks, where the doctor, undertaker, preacher or anyone else is included, the price will be two cents a word. Many people want to embalm the memory of their doctor, undertaker or preacher in cold type at the expense of the editor, and we are tired of it."

—The marriage of Miss Leona Christman, of Harrodsburg, and Mr. Claude M. Clark, of Frankfort, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Christman, in Harrodsburg, Tuesday afternoon. The bride is a handsome and charming young woman, a niece of John and Gus Christman, of Paris, at whose home she has been a frequent visitor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. S. Clark, father of the bridegroom.

After a short wedding trip the young people will return to Frankfort, where Mr. Clark is engaged in business, to reside.

CARTER—REYNOLDS

—A wedding of very great interest took place at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday evening, May 31, when Rev. C. H. Greer pronounced the ceremony that united the lives of Miss Emma Lee Carter, of Nelson county, and Mr. Elmer Reynolds, of Louisville. The bride is a niece of the officiating minister, and until recently was a popular teacher in the Bloomfield school. Mr. Reynolds holds an important position with the L. and N. railroad in their Louisville offices.

The happy pair left at once for a trip to Washington City, Niagara Falls, and other places of interest, and on their return will be at home in Louisville.

FORD—KIDWELL

—Miss Mary Etta Ford, daughter of James E. Ford, of Sharptown, Md., and Mr. Robert Kidwell, of Washington, D. C., were married recently in the parlors of the Representative Church of Southern Methodism, in Washington, Rev. Dr. Chappell officiating.

The bride is a former resident of Paris, and is a niece of the Misses Ford, of Seventh street. She was a student at the Paris High School and at Millersburg College. Mr. Kidwell is a young business man of Washington, where he has resided many years.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kidwell left for a visit to the bridegroom's family, in Petersburg, Va. On their return they will go to housekeeping in a handsome home at No. 504 M Street, which is being completed for them.

"TEACHERS ON TRIAL"

The teaching profession in Kentucky is on trial this year, and principals and instructors in county teacher training schools throughout the State are called upon to give their very best to the work, in a letter written to all instructors and principals throughout the State by Charles D. Lewis, State director of teacher training. Mr. Lewis recalls the various steps taken by the legislature to give the State better teacher training facilities and urged the instructors to "put pep in every class and every activity," regardless of the hot weather and to endeavor to make each school the best in the State.
